TUESDAY, MAY 2. 1738

N<sup>o</sup>. 890.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS of the 15th ult. O.S. from Vienna, are still silent as to the pretended Discovery of a Conspiracy in Transilvania; and the News from Hungary, touching the Motions of the Turks, is very uncertain, those of the 16th from Belgrade, making no mention of the Conquest of Sempendria, nor of the Blockade of Orlova and Vipalanka: They say indeed that the Infidels seized 2 or 3 open Places in the Imperial Serbia, but that they abandon'd them at the Approach of some Troops that were sent thither to drive them out: Nevertheless all the Letters agree, that the Enemy are making great Preparations for a Siege.

A Marriage is published between the Hereditary Prince of Modena, who is no more than 11 Years of Age, and Maria Theresa, Duchess of Massa Carrara, who is but 13. It has been a long while promoting by the Marquis d'Este, Uncle to our Dutchess Dowager, and Regent, who went to Massa Carrara for that Purpose, and negotiated it all the while with Counsellor Terrenti, the Duke of Modena's Minister.

The Duke d'Ursel, Governor of Namur, died lately at Brussels, Aged 77.

The eldest Son of the Duke Ferdinand of Bavaria, died at Munich the 28th ult. at 18 Years of Age.

Mr. Fane, the British Minister, is coming Home from Leghorn.

Letters of the 15th of January from Carthage in America say, that some Ships are fitting out there to cruise along the Spanish Coasts, and that the Fair is not like to begin at Porto Bello till towards September next, because according to their last Advices from Lima, the Ships that were to carry the Treasure from thence to Panama were not yet ready to sail, notwithstanding the earnest Instances of the Viceroy of Peru to hasten their Departure.

Those of the 30th of March from St. Croix in Barbary say, that the King Muley Abdallah, being arrived with his Army at Morocco, the Santon of St. Croix retired with his Troops from Taradant towards the Mountains, there to join the Party of another Santon, but was met by a Detachment of 200 Men under an Arabian of the Tribe of Hpora, who dispersed his Party and took him Prisoner. This Arabian, who has been for some time out of Favour with the King Muley Abdallah, caused the Head of the said Santon to be cut off immediately, and sent it to that Prince, in hopes of its being a Means to restore him to his good Graces; and then he march'd towards Taradant, where he caused Muley Abdallah to be proclaimed King of Barbary. Most of the Arabians are since gone to Morocco, there to pay to the said Prince their Homage; so that the People of St. Croix have likewise been obliged to own him in that Quality; the rather, because Achmet Udmear, the Son of one of its former Governors, is actually arrived there to take Possession of the Government, to which he has been nominated by the King: But after all, they are in hopes that these things will soon put a Period to the Civil Wars, and that a Tranquillity will succeed in those Parts.

The Letters from Florence which mention the Return of the British Minister, Charles Fane, Esq; to England, add, that above 40 Lorain Soldiers lately deserted from the Castle of Belvedere, who were immediately pursued by some Horse, but only 4 could be overtaken, who were immediately committed to the Castle and shot to Death.

NEW ENGLAND.

Philadelphia, Feb. 21. On Wednesday last, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, then sitting here, came on the Trial of Evan Jones, Chymist, for being a Principal concern'd in the Death of a young Man who had been his Apprentice. The Trial began at 9 o'Clock in the Forenoon, and lasted till almost Two next Morning. The Jury found him guilty of Man-slaughter; and he was accordingly, at the breaking up of the Sessions, Burnt in the Hand, and ordered him to find sufficient Security for his good Behaviour. There was the greatest Throng of People to hear the Trial, which perhaps ever appeared at any Trial in this Province. By the Evidences, some of whom were deeply concerned in this Affair, it appear'd, that the Deceased having made known to his Master his Desires of being made a Free Mason, he, and some of his Associates, contrived to make themselves Mirth, by imposing on the young Fellow, and making him believe that they were Free Masons: The unwary young Man, was too soon prevail'd with to believe them, and suffered such Impositions (besides that of his Treating them) as at length terminated in his Death. He was persuaded to repeat, after one of the Company, what was call'd an Oath of Secrecy; but as vile, stupid, and prophane (to say no worse of it) as ever was invented; after which, he being Blind-fold, they gave him Physick to drink, and then led him to, and made him kiss the bare Possessions of one of their Company. After all this, viz. on the 13th of June, at Evening, the Company, who call'd themselves a Lodge, met again at Dr. Jones's, in order, as the Deceased was made believe, to make him a complete Free Mason. After Supper, the Company retired to the Cellar, and this unhappy Person was led down blind-fold to them, and there unvail'd: They had prepared a Pan of burning Spirits, with Rapiers at the Bottom, and were standing round, dipping in their Hands for the Rapiers, and stirring the Flames about. This was call'd Swamp Dragon. One of the Company was wrap'd in a Hide to represent the Devil, which, with the strange Countenances, that the Light of the burning Spirits caus'd, made Things look ghastly, frightful, devilish. However, this it seems did not terrify him as was expected, and he had not been long in the Cellar, when the whole Pan of burning Spirits was thrown on him, at which he cry'd out, Master, I'm kill'd, I'm kill'd; and, not withstanding they immediately strove to extinguish the Flames, he was scorchi'd to that Degree that he died by reason thereof, on the 16th of the same Month, in a miserable Manner. It was sworn, that the Doctor was the Person who hang or spit the Liquor; but no premeditated Malice could be prov'd, so he came off with only burning in the Hand, as before related.

And on Thursday J—n R—n, Attorney at Law, and E—W—, Taylor, were Try'd, for being present at, and concern'd in, the said Affair. The former was found Guilty of Manslaughter, but was pardoned. The latter the Jury acquitted.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, April 25. We hear from St. Andrew's, that last Week died Sir James Sharp of Arnyhill, Bart. Grandson of the Archbishop of St. Andrew's of that Name.

From Paisley, That Wednesday last Mr. Banatyne, Chaplain in Brigadier General Campbell's Family, was Ordained by the Rev. Presbyter, a Minister of the Church of Scotland, in order to his being appointed Chaplain to the said Brigadier's Regiment of Royal Scots Gray Dragoons. And that on Thursday, the Rev. Presbyter of Glasgow did ordain and settle Mr. George Adam as Minister of Cathcart, with great Harmony.

Early last Tuesday Morning two married Women of this City kept out to Burntisland Links to a concerted Match at Golf, followed by their Husbands carrying the Clubs. Curiosity led thither a great Crowd, who were charmed with seeing the half-naked Virago's tilt the Balls so manfully, and their Dexterity in haling. Considerable Wagers were laid; but charming Sally carried the Prize. And,

Thomas Baillie and William Moor, Farmers at Gogar, in the Parish of Corthorphone, both aged above 80, play'd a Match at the Long Bullets, (each Buller a Pound-weight heavier than the ordinary ones) for a considerable Sum; the former gained the Prize, tho' the eldest by two Years. However nothing could be more surprizing, than to see the stout, brawny Trojans play with the Vigour of Bachelors at 30.

Yesterday Mr. Laurence Dundas of Lethem, was married to Miss Bruce, only Daughter of Mr. Bruce of Kenner, a very beautiful and every way agreeable young Lady.

On Saturday last there was such a violent Storm of Wind and Rain from the North East, that the Leaves of the Trees were lying as thick on the Ground as in the latter End of Autumn, and the beautiful Fountains much defac'd; and no doubt we shall have sad Accounts from Sea: A Boat that adventur'd from the other Side, with the utmost Difficulty made the Port of Leith, the Passengers having given themselves over for lost. A Corpse was cast on Shore near Cra-mond, which gave occasion to a Report of a Wreck near that Place; but we hear since, that it prov'd to be the Master of a Vessel who perished some time ago, whom the Violence of the Sea had thrown up.

A Gentleman's Barn was thereby so much damaged, that he suspected it to be Thieves, and next Day, tho' Sunday, had all his Corn removed.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Clester, April 22. On Wednesday Night last, a most lamentable Fire broke out in the House of George Shakerly of Gwefyl, Esq; which in few Hours burned it to the Ground; the Fire was so exceeding fierce, that no Part of the rich Furniture could be preserved, a great deal of Money, Plate and Jewels were dissolved and buried in the Ruins, the Family Writings were saved, as was part of the noble Library; and what only could give Consolation to his Neighbours and Acquaintance (of whom he is most exceedingly beloved) himself, Lady and Children, were Providentially delivered from the Flames, in which some Servants perished, to the additional and expressible concern of the worthy Gentleman and his good Lady.

Bristol, April 29. Tuesday last as two Men belonging to Mr. Wincoll, at the Lamb in Broad-Mead, were cutting some Hay from a Mow in a Field at Totterdown near this City, they found in a Linen Bag 36 l. in Guineas, Half Guineas, Crowns, and Half Crowns, and some Shillings, all made of Pewter, unfinished, being the Store of some Coiners; which is deposited in the Hands of the Right Worshipful the Mayor.

This is to give Notice,

THAT there will be leaped at Sly-

field, near Leatherhead in Surrey, a famous Stallion, known by the Name of Sally Slouch, being the strongest and Horfe in England, and of the highest Blood: His true red-gree will be shewn with him, and attested under the Lord's Hand that bred him; in his sixth Year old he won the hundred Royal Guineas, commonly call'd King's Plate, at Guilford, Salisbury, Winchester and Canterbury. He beat a Horfe of his Grace the Duke of Bolton's, at Winchester, that went from thence to York, and won the Royal Guineas there from all the best Horses the North produced that Year; the next Year he beat a famous Horfe of the Duke of Ancaster's, at Grantham, for the forty Guineas that had been a King's Plate Horfe, and won all the best Plate in England the two foregoing Years. The Odds before starting was two to four on the Duke's Horfe; from thence he came to Huntingdon, and won the forty Guineas there, and thence he went to Leighton-Buzzard, and won the fifty Guineas there, against a Horfe of the Duke of Bolton's, that his own Groom gave him Grace 100 Guineas for two Years after, when his Grace was pleased to cast him out of his String of Horses, and at the same Time beat a Horfe of Mr. Greenwood's, that cost him 100 Guineas, and had won the King's Plates of York, Lincoln, and Newmarket, the foregoing Season; which Horfe beat a Horfe at Newmarket, that had won five King's Plates that Season: He won all the 12 Stone Plates that he was qualified to run for, for some Time after, and two Gentlemen that had him then, refused 600 Guineas for him, and when he was taken out of Training last June, challeng'd any Horfe in England to run the best of three Heats with 18 Stone apiece over Guildford, for 200 Guineas each Heat.

N. B. This Horfe was fox-hunted when he was four Years old, and rode by Esq; Horw of Gloucestershire, who was rough a Fox-hunter as any in England, and was sold by him that Year for 100 Guineas, and is leaped now, in order to begin a Race of Strong Cattle, if possible, for the Purchase of the best Horses of England, that are Lovers of that old and honorable, as well as beautiful Diversion of Hunting, not doubting, but a Horfe may be so valuable to carry a Nobleman or Gentleman, &c. as they are so carry their Bots, for which they give four or five hundred Guineas each. This Horfe is stout as Iron, and sound, and free from all Blemishes, as when he was last leaped, and shall leap at Five Guineas a Mare, if she prove in foal; if not, nothing but Half a Crown to the Groom.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES,

WHICH has been published in other many Years before any Counterfeits in other Forms appeared, and highly commended from one Friend to another. The vast Quantities that have been sold, also verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it most perfectly cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small Time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed by Humors dripping thereon, occasion'd by hard Riding, Colds, &c. it causes presently a free Perspiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezing, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a good Breathe.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horses have been made so perfectly sound, that they have been sold and valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by being Broken-winded, could not before be sold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is sold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Green, the Corner of Boekler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 2 s. 6 d. the Quarter Bottle, with Directions for taking it, and no where else in England.
